Law is the Guardian of Propriety.

The Oppressor's Scourge, Bulwark of Loyalty;

Make it not then a Screen for peevish Faction;

Nor yet for base Revenge Commence an Action:

If any do by craft abuse the same,

The Men, not the Profession, are to blame.

Let us be Honest, study Love and Peace;

The Lawyers soon will find their Fees decreas'd.

Give not the King, no not in thy thoughts, Eccles. 10. 20.

Monarchs are God's Vice-Roys, the Imperial Turans, No hand, but Heavens Paramount doth own,
Their lawful Seigniors, Power Divine doth sway, But Subject's Work, and Duty's to Obey.
Good-Kings and Emperours, Born to Command, Are Fortunate in all, they take in Hand,
They reap the Bless'd Fruit which they have sown,
Who prize their Peoples Good more than their own.

Astrological Conjectures, or Observations.

God direct the General Affairs of England.

The Actions and Councils depending upon this Months Configurations, are very Material, all over Europe.  $\frac{1}{2}$  Transits the very end of M. but by his Retrograde Motion, will continue there most part of the year or till Octob. and some Months after, we may hear of considerable changes in Europe. We have many flying reports, as if some Treaty for Peace were intended, and that Intelligence will be generally well received. I fear Ireland is not yet settled, but their Happiness is now approaching. The weather is cold, and most People are dejectedly Spiritless, & possess'd with Fears and Jealousies; but doubtless many are the indeavours of some noble Hero's amongst us to accomodate general Differences; our Enemies carry on their Designs very closely to accomplish their Ends, to the prejudice and great detriment of the Publick. Later Anguin in Herba

Here should be much News from Ireland, and an eminent Person perhaps called in question. Violent Spirits of different Persuasions, appear very Active, but they meet with unexpected Obstructions, and thereby miss their desired end. Leagues and Articles now fall under dispute, &amp;c. ## Astrological Conjectures, or Observations.

Many Reports spread abroad as various, as uncertain, and divers Scandalous Pamphlets secretly dispers'd by dissatisfied Persons, to the great abuse of our Governors &c Government. The French Monarch is still active, by way of Stratagem, and the grand Actions of Europe, in general, are now prosecuted, and carried on with much celerity. Few Persons thinks themselves safe or secure, but are in Expectation of other Revolutions and Changes, than lately we have seen, and too many desire it: for the minds of Men are too much averse to their own Happiness; yet such as are now or near this time found guilty, may in the end too late repent their madness and folly, and be exposed to the common Justice of the Nation. All Health, Peace and Prosperity, do we heartily wish to England's Metropolis. Heavens keep us from Tumults, Insurrections, Plots, &c. and from all repining Spirits, strange Diseases and Caluities.

Now this Force of Descent of Bodies towards the Center is not in all places alike, but is still less and less, as the distance from the Center encreases; which the worthy Author has demonstrated; that this force decreases as the Square of the distance increases, i. e. the weight of Bodies, and the force of their fall is less, in parts more removed from the Center.

Astrological Conjectures, or Observations,

The Influences of the Stars this Month are very propitious; and 'tis usher'd in with a Benevolent △ of ♀ and ☿: Now 'tis probable, an Ambassador or Agent arrives about this time, to agitate Matters of great consequence, now under Consideration; and to promote something very material. The French Monarch is still active and very formidable; and yet we have good Reason to hope the Affairs of England continues still in a moderate good posture, notwithstanding the evil endeavours to the contrary; and about this time good News arrives to some of our Merchants; and at this time there are those noble Spirited Persons that labour hard to do good in their Generation; the Influences appearing very benevolent, every Man for himself, and God for us all. Honesty will be found the best Policy.

Curat Lex fiat Justitia.

In the Proportion of the Squares of the Distances So as for Example, a Tun Weight on the Surface of the Earth, if it were raised to the height of 4000 Miles. (which is the supposed Semidiameter of the Earth;) would weigh but a quarter of a Tun, or 500 weight: If to 12000 Miles, or 3 Semidiameters from the Surface, that is, 4 from the Center,

Here are many notable Configurations, this Month, amongst the rest there happens a hateful Opposition of Saturn and Mars from his Signs, which usually have very bad Effects, among Mortals, and sometimes by dangerous Diseases, &c. A verral Deus, Matters begin to appear very formidable to several Countries of Europe. Now there is great preparation for Sea-Action by many Christian Princes, and I doubt not but their Majesties of Great Britain continue in great Grandeur: in short, we have now many Configurations of the Planets very remarkable, whose Effects may be no less considerable and worthy of the Observations of the Curious. Some illustrious Person in danger of Death, perhaps by Poison. Tembus orinid reval &c.

August hath xxxi days.

But yet at all given Distances is still too strong, though the feet become Insensible. At the Distance of the Moon 60 miles suppose 60 Semidiameters of the Earth 1600 pounds weight but one pound, and the Fall of Bodies is but 16,386 parts of a Foot in a Second, or 16 foot in a Minute as much as the Surface of the Earth in a Second of Time.

1	10	A	1	10	△ *	The last Month's Con- junctions were not so consider- able, but this affords us much variety, for no less than 12 times are the Pla- nets in Aspects amongst them- selves, as may be seen in the Column thereof, and as various will the Transactions of Europe be, some Grandees will be called in Question, and very editorial matters laid to their charge; some Persons are imprisoned o- thers enlarged. Much dis- course of Plots very secret- ly projected, but the A- gents or Actors thereof im- peached and discovered; and we in England receive various reports from most parts of Christendom. This Month produces much of Action, and that considerable too, great Councils are dissolved, and some differences may arise amongst the Nobility, & many in the and high Places stand now on a tottering foundation, but Quod supra est, nihil est fixum.

The same force Decreasing after the same manner, is evidently found in the Sun, Moon, and all the Planets; but more especially in the Sun, whose force is prodigious; becoming sensible even in the immense distance of Saturn. This gives room to suspect that the force of Gravity is in the Celestial Globe, proportional to the quantity of Matter in each of them.

The Configurations of the last Month have powerful operation in this; let those who are guilty of treasonable and other Criminal Offences secure and defend themselves as well as they can. May our Kingdom of England enjoy much happiness is most heartily desired, and there is no question to be made of it, notwithstanding the Attempts of its most potent Enemies, who have and do try all ways to bring it under a slavish Yoke of Bondage and cruel Severity, which will never be accomplished at least in this Age. So that now after various Turns and Changes, Plots and Sham-Plots, cum multis aliis. We have still very rational hopes of Unity, or at least a better understanding amongst us than hath been for several Years past. Many aged persons leave this troublesome World and those of no mean Quality, others of the Long Robe that have been famous in their Generation, both Clergy Men and Lawyers receive their last Summons and patiently retire to the Shades.

This Law of the Decree of Gravity being demonstratively prov'd, and put past contradiction, the learned Author with great sagacity enquires 1470, — the October 1691.

W. O. M. C. 1691

At the beginning of this Month we have a double opposition of Mercury and Venus from fixed signs, which shows a perfect and suddenly can open the way and some of the principal Persons thereof. Male-content of Spouse, boys, and the too bustling and want of liquors and like Repairs, of very ill consequences. But gusts and Breach of peace now, or near this time, to purpose. I hope Lucifer is not so loose for some small time, to raise tumults and insurrections amongst dissatisfied Lollers Spirits. For the Configurations of this Month are very cross and contradictory. God preserve our Metropolis-City from all manner of violent Distresses this year from Tumults, Plagues, Fires, and all other Calamities whatever. For Mars makes a long transit through the Sign Gemini.

First Rudiments of Astrology in Intellectual Verses.

Table of Houses. I present the Reader with these intellectual Verses, to assist the Memory of Learners, and refer them to my Last Table, or any other, they shall please, every Year, and of no use but so much as frequently in Figures, avoid kind

A Strongly Consequent Motion they, And how Aspects every Planet goes.

Astrology is a Science that directs To find the Heavens Meaning and Effects;
They are not two, but each a different part,
And both conjoined make up one rare Art.

All Stars do either keep a constant Course,
Which only round by the first Mover's force,
Or else besides have Motions of their own,
Each in its Sphere, as on a proper Throne.
These fixed Stars, but these we Planets call,
And count the last to be but seven in all.

The First in various Constellations shine, (As reflex Glasses of the Power Divine)
But greater Virtues from the Wanderers flow, Whose several Names, and Order, thus we know, Saturn, Jove, Mars, next Heavens bright Eye, the Sun, Then Venus, Mercury, and the oft changing Moon.

The Planets always do their Ranges take,
In some of these twelve Signs o' th' Zodiac;
I th' first place Aries, Taurus, Gemini, Then Cancer, Leo, and the Virgin Lye,
The Balance, Scorpion, Bowman next appear, Goat, Aquary, and Pisces in the rear.

Aspects are different Angles made below
By Beams, that from Stars various postures flow; Conjunction is when e're two Planets be,
Both in one Sign, and the self same degree; Sextiles are two signs of, Squares three times four Opposing Rays, at six Signs distance lower.

The next thing to be learnt by Sons of Art,
Is how Twelve Houses do the Heavens part;
What each House signifies, and from that scope, Frame for all doubts a proper Horoscope.

The first Rudiments of Astrology in Almanack Verse

The First, Fourth, Seventh and Tenth, we Angles call; Next Four Succedents, the rest Cadents all.

*The First House, Life, the Second Wealth doth give; Third shews how Brethren, Fourth how Parents live; Children the Fifth, the Sixth Diseases trace;
The Seventh Foes, also Wedlock, the Eighth the Grave; Morals the Ninth, o're the Tenth Honours prevail; Friends from the Eleventh, but the twelfth a Gage.*

*The Planets various Natures must be known,
And what peculiar Subject each doth own;
Saturn is cold and dry, with meagre face;
An envious old Clown, foe to each Grace;
That does in Frosts, and Snows, and Defarts reign;
And clogs with Melancholy fumes the Brain.*

*Jove rules the Reverend Clergy and Bar-Gown, And fills with honest Joy the Frisk Town;
Gives a grave Countenance, well gotten Wealth,
A steady Mind and undisturbed Health;
Bright as his Rays are all his Subjects Souls,
And by his Influence threatned Ills controuls.*

*Mars must not be forgot, nor but I know The Hurley-Burleys he foment below, Parent of Brolls, and Master of Disorders, Grand disturber of States, and prompter of Murders;
But I could wish such Dire Effects might cease,
And all the World enjoy the Sweets of Peace.*

*The Sun's Heavens Monarch, and does represent Princes, and such as share in Government;
A generous Face, a free and liberal Hand;
A Soul like Caesar's, born for to command.
And whilst he runneth his Eclipse Ring, Doth make both Autumn, Winter, Summer, Spring.*

*Venus presides o're the fair Female-Sex,
And does with Charms of Love young Hearts perplex;
In Beauty, Musick, Gallantries delights,
And spends in Froicks the swift passing Nights;
But when ill Dignifi'd doth off surprize, With Raging Lusts, and close Adulceries.*

Mercury

The first Rudiments of Astrology in Memorial Verse.

Mercury is a Trimurt, turns his Coar,
And with the rising Side still joins his Note, Supplies good Authors Fancies with rich-Sense,
And inspires Praters with Impertinence;
The Mobile are Ruled by the Moon, Whose Humours suit her, and will change as soon.

But let's the Planets once again survey,
And their first Qualities briefly display;
Saturn's extremely Cold, and meanly Dry, Five kindly heats, and moistens all the Sky,
Mars is like Brandy that doth Nature spoil, By roasting that which shou'd but gently boil.

Whether in Heavens Qualities do reign,
Has long been Bancer'd too and fro in vain, Which thus perhaps determined may be,
That they from Elemental Dregs are free,
And Heat, and Cold, and Drought, and Moisture there, Are only Names, of what they op'rate here.

The Sun's the Fountain both of Light and Heat, Yet do his Beams but moderately dry;
Venus is warm, her moistening Virtue gear,
And like his Consorts, still is Mercury.

The Moon do't gently heat, but her chief Power, Consists in Moisture, witness many a Shower.

Astrologers begin their Day at Noon,
And thence their Hours to twenty four run on.
Thus Six i'th' Morning on the Fifth of May,
The Eighteenth hour of the fourth they say,
In Ephemerides you thus must mind,
If Planets place, or Aspects you would find.

The Trigons of the Signs do represent,
How they partake of every Element, Thus Aries, Leo, Sagittary, be All of the Fiery Triplcity.

While heavy Taurus, Virgo, Capricorn, Are down towards the Earthy Nature born.
Twin, Libra, Aquary are Airy Signs, Water with Cancer, Scorpio, Pisces joins.

And the Figure of the Heavens would tell,

And Doctrine of Triangles shall not yet.

You must a Table of Hours get,

With an ephemeris, daily to know

How all the Planets in their Order go.

Then the Sun's place under the Trach House find,

Against which Hours and Minutes you shall find;

These added to the Time of day, will show

Casts of the first six Hours on a row;

The other six Opposite Signs will seize,

And each respectively the same Degrees.

Next place your Planets as they chance to be,

Each in its proper Sign and true Degree;

If more than those, that on each House appear,

Within that House; else write them on the Beaz;

Then mind the Dragon's Head, and without fail,

The place just opposite shall be its Tail.

The Part of Persons must not be forgot,

For hence are done the hopes of Wealth allot;

To find it out the trouble is not great,

These two next lines alone will do the feat;

Subtract the Sun's place from the Moon's, then add

The Horoscope, and Part of Fortune's had.

—A any Planet from the middle way

Of the Zodiac to North, or South, doth stray.

The same we call such Planet's Latitude,

Which these Letters in Table do include;

S. A. Always denotes their North Ascension;

As N. and D. declare their South Declension.

Thus briefly have I taught the Grounds of Art,

Where Memory may claim the greatest part;

This being learn'd, to Practice we proceed,

Where deeper Thoughts and Judgments you will need.

Let the Industrious Student mind this well,

And then arrange things he may attempt to tell.

Aries, ☉ Taurus, ♉ Gemini, ♊ Cancer, ♋ Leo, ♌ Virgo, ♍ Libra, ♏ Scorpio, ♐ Sagittary, ♑ Capricorn, ♒ Aquarius, ♓ Pisces.

♄ Saturn, ♃ Jupiter, ♀ Mars, ☉ Sol, ♀ Venus, ☿ Mercury, ☾ Luna.

1. Historical Remarks fit to be considered as this present Juncture of time.

BY comparing what is past, with the present Transactions of Europe (together with the consideration of Starry Influences, &c.) we may be able the better to fore-see, what in all probability will be the future state thereof, according to that saying, Qui Respicit præterita & inspicit præsentia, prospicit etiam & futura. By considering seriously, or rather consulting of History, we may see the various Examples of Vertue and Vice, of Humane Imbecilities, of various Changes in Kingdoms, States, and all Governments; of the Mutability that is in mens minds, of the Inconstancy of their Affections, of the Cunning and falshood that are in Promises and Covenants, and the Vanity that is in all Humane Felicity.

If we examine History and Chronology, we may behold the Microcosm of Mankind for many hundred years, acting over and over again the same Tragi-Comedies; we may read of new Persons and Villards, but the same things Acted. A man that observes the Actions of People of all degrees in all Ages narrowly, may easily discover nothing almost but Treacheries, Murthers, Incests, Adulteries, Thefts, Perjuries, Oppressions, Imprisonments, Cates, Watchings, Travellings, underminings of one another; Prison Tyannizing over the People, Subjects Rebelling against their Princes; one Prince thrusting out another, and People Quarrelling one with another. In the World we frequently see Perigrations, Navigations, Toyings, Battles, Law-suits, and a thousand kind of vexations, and all for a handful of Earth: Here we may see Innumerable Nests of Wasps and Hornets, destroying and stinging one another to Death; and what is the cause of all this Mischief but Pride, Ambition, Covetousness, Sacrilege, Tyranny, whimsical Opinions in Religion, &c. and above all things Injustice, for which the World has suffered so many Changes. Justice is the Pillar upon which States and Kingdoms stand, remove that, and down falls the Temple of Government; 'tis the Sun that Illuminates all Societies, 'tis the Band that ties People to their Governors; and in fine, 'tis the life of all States and Dominions. Plutarch tells us, that Paulus Æmilius, who subdued Perseus the Macedonian King, spent all his Idle time in reading of Histories, which made him so good a Souldier. Charles the Great, Alexander, Severus, they did also as much admire History in their times, and to good purpose.

Wine is ever best when it is old, and Fruits best when ripest, Young Men are for Action, Old Men for Direction; Young Men may see farther, but Old Men can Judge better; the one may have a quicker Corporal fight, but the other a nimbler Mental, as having far more Experience.

We may read from the second Macedonian War, Anno mundi 3990. in at least 1900 years (as History relates) we shall find upon the Theatre of the World, the same Tragedies of Wars, Plagues, Famines, Oppressions, Tyrannies, Thefts, Murders, Fires, Earthquakes, Inundations, Massacres, Ruins of Castles, Temples, Palaces, Dissolation of Countries, Kingdoms, and Common-wealths, Devastation of Towns and Cities, Alterations of Laws and Governments, &c. I say, you shall see the same Trag-dies (perhaps with some variation of Circumstance) reiterated by different Actors, succeeding each other in their Generations, &c. See the Story of Lucian lifting Charon upon the top of Parnassus. — Ats longa vita brevis. —

We read, that in the Battle between King Edward IV. and Henry VI. was slain 10000 Men, and King Henry brought Prisoner to London. We are yet, and so must continue many years under the Dominion of the Fiery Triplicity; and therefore no wonder to see and hear frequently of so great Alterations and Mutations in the Kingdoms and Common-wealths of Europe, and most parts of the Christian World; and very well may we expect such Changes in this our Age, as perhaps no former time can exactly parallel. These Commotions, Sharp Contentions, and high Disputes, Plots, and Controversies must arise, or have their Foundation from Religious pretences, &c. Tho' it may be presumed that Self-ends and private Interests amongst the Grandees of the World (next to Divine Providence) may be the only cause from whence arises such Turbulent and troublesome Effects, as we in our times have seen and heard of to Admiration.

Predominium Elementi ignei, &c. The Predomination of the Fiery Elements have Influence over Men, and do design Accidents to ensue unto Kings, Rulers of Common-wealths and Cities; and it hath special Relation in manifesting the Seditions and Upheavals of People; and those things are ever attended with the change of Customs, Laws, and Ceremonies in Religion, with Schisms and Heresies, &c. And here I think it proper to insert a very significant saying of my Old Friend, the Famous Mr. William

Thus much I say, and confidently aver, That he is the of any Nation whatsoever, that shall have his full share of Grace upon the English Nation without his own proper disposition, and perhaps of the whole Family. And farther he adds, England, England, England, thou shalt flourish again and again, thou and thy impoverish'd Cities and Merchants, and of this be as-sur'd; And when the fulness of Time comes, or near 1700. thou shalt have a principal hand with thy Sister of Scotland, and some Northern People, in performing and concluding the mightiest Affairs Europe ever beheld since the Birth of our Saviour.

And further in another place he very significantly predicts thus, viz. I conceive that privately and underhand by Lyes, by Treacheries, by Feigned and Dissembling Treaties, and Embas-sadors, and by the Policy of the Jesuitical Faction all over Europe, the true Protestant Religion shall infinitely be distressed, and the Heavenly Intentions impedit, and all those Countries that profess Protestantism exceedingly molested, by so secret a close conspiracy of Villains and false-hearted Traitors, lurking in the Palaces and Closets of Princes, as that many will think Popery and Papiism shall return to its old Seat in every Country, but that it never will in our Kingdom; for Jupiter being in his chief House (then in Sagittary, and since in Leo, the House of the Sun and of Triplicity) cannot but in time overcome. And so he goes on saying, That God will miraculously, by means of some Young Prince or Commonalty of people, discover and bring to light the close Mystery of those Plots, that for many years shall involve all at some times, and part at other, of Christendom, in most Bloody Broils, &c. Prophet. Merl. pag. 25. These are very Material hints, and we have seen them most notoriously verified in a great measure, and therefore not improper to be remembered in these troublesom times.

Europe is said to be at this time the most flourishing part of the Universe for Empire, Religion and Learning, Arts and Sciences, and all the High distinctions of Humane kind. Those Great Heroes of the first and second Monarchy, and of the two last also, so noised of in History, never drove their Conquests so far as Europe has done; And all the Exploits of a Cyrus in Asia, of a Cambyses in Affrica, of a Darius and his Sons in Europe, and afterwards of a Tamburlain in all the three; no, not of an Alexander and Cæsar themselves, come nor near the bold Courses of our Western People, who are seized on all the Coasts of the Ocean, and make all the Puissances of the two Continents to tremble, and they may be parallel'd with a Charlemayn, with a Great Henry of France, with a Gustavus of Sweden, and a Prince of Orange of old, &c.

Have we not seen in this last and worst Age of the World, all Christendom on a flame of Wars and Confusions, like Wild-fire every where catching, from Country to Country, and then taking its course round? and there has very rarely any Nation escaped from stupendious Revolutions, both Ecclesiastick and Civil. We have seen within the compass of a few years, a 30 years bloody War in Germany, almost laying it desolate, which divided it self into several Streams; as first the Wars of Bohemia, then of Denmark, then of the Swedes, of Saxony, of the French, of Hungary, and of Italy too, &c. Above a four score years War in the Low Countries, with all the Cruelties imaginable, and at last the most mighty Monarch of all Christendom turned out of his own Dominions by his Subjects, and forc'd to acknowledge them a Free State, by a publique Treaty at Munster 1648. Also a Twenty years War between the two most mighty Monarchs, and Sons of the Church, with the Revolt of Catalonia; A threescore years Usurpation of the Kingdom of Portugal, from the right Heirs, brought down in a day, and without blood; but near a thirty years Effusion of Blood and Treasure ensuing thereupon, yet at last this great Monarchy forc'd to consent to the Lopping of this so principal a Member from its Body by a late Peace in 1667. Then above twenty years Wars of the mighty Grand Turk against Christendom; and in fine, to come nearer home, we have seen a lamentable twenty years Civil War in England, &c. the whole Subversion both of Church and State: A glorious King brought before the Tribunal of his own Rebellious Subjects, and unmercifully put to death by a Faction of Republicans: And then follows, an Ancient and Flourishing Monarchy laps'd into a short-liv'd Commonwealth, a State, a Protector, and a miraculous Return to where they began, an unheard of Restitution of the Banished, and wonderful preserv'd Prince, without War or Bloodshed. We have seen this mighty Emperour deposed, and strangled by his own Vassals in the same year 1648. and his Successor much ado to escape the Rout in 1656. as History relates at large. We have seen above twenty years Civil Wars, Broyles, Commutations, and Passi-

... Relax'd, and the poor old King made weary of his Son by his own restless and unconstant Subjects: We have seen and a Queen besides, to lay down their Crowns of their own accord, for a more quiet and happy life. We have also seen an universal Calm, as it were, and Peace for a while, but a sudden Eruption of fiercer Wars again both by Sea and Land, and again a deep silence and stand, as it were, on a sudden, and the World gazing one at another, what they are about to do, &c.

Lastly, we have seen Grand Eclipses, Conjunctions, Comets, New Stars, innumerable Prodiges and Signs in the Heavens, in the Earth, in the Waters, a Raging Plague, marching from Country to Country, together with Bloody Wars, and the most Dreadful Fire as ever was designed, or contrived, of one of the greatest in Christendom, and perhaps we may expect greater things yet to come.

Most men are apt to judge of things by Circumstances, and to attribute what happens by the Conjunction of Times, to the Effect of Contrivance. 'Tis now more than an Age that the Subjects of England have liv'd in continual Apprehensions of the Increase of Popery, and the Decay of the Protestant Religion.
And as to the ill Effects of Popery, let us consider the whole Reign of Q. Mary, in which the Papists made fuel of the Protestants.—The Excommunicating and Deprivation of Q. Elizabeth by the Pope, pursued with so many Treasons and Attempts upon her Person by her own Subjects, and the Invasion in '88. by the Spanish, the two Breves of the Pope in order to Exclude K. James the First from the Succession to the Crown, seconded by the Gunpowder-Treason; and in the time of K. Charles the First (besides what they contributed to the Civil War in England) the Rebellion and horrid Massacre in Ireland, and which was even worse then that, their pretending it was done by the Kings Commission, and vouching the Broad-S Seal for their Authority, and abundance more too tedious to relate in this place.

To conclude this Theme, we were never beholding to his most Christian Majesty, but he has had great Assistance of Men and Ammunition from England; and well he rewards their Kindness by useful Experience has been too lately seen. If he pretend to joyn in Assistance, either with the English or Holland, as he too lately he has done, (tho now at this time at variance with both) his Business is to see us batter one another, for whom he was in

League

Learn with the Dutch, his Navy never did them any Service, and when on the English side, he only studied to found out Ships, to lay out Ports, to learn our Ship-Building, to contemplate our way of Fight, to consume ours, preserve his own Navy, to enlarge his Commerce, and to order also that the great Naval Powers of Europe, being crush'd together, he might remain sole Arbitrator of the Ocean, and by consequence Master of all the Island-Continent. But let France glory never so much of their Country, the Spaniards drink better Wine, and eat better Food, &c.

Of the four Quarters of the Year, and first of the Winter Quarter, on the Suns Transit through  $\Psi$ ,  $\Upsilon$ ,  $\Delta$ .

The Quarter begins Decemb sixth, a little before 6 in the Morning 1690, at which time the latter degrees of Virgo culminate, and the beginning of Sagittary ascends in the Latitude of London: the Moon defluxes from a square of Mars, and applies to the Quadra of Mercury, and Sextile of Saturn. Two Quaterns, ushered in with a Quadrant Aspect of the Sun and Jove, and therefore it cannot be expected, that Matters should succeed so well amongst the Grandees of Europe, as might be wished. But Jove in his own Dignities, and is hastening on, to shed Signings the Equinoctial sign Aries the reputed Astroliter of England, and therefore gives us great hopes of a happy tranquillity amongst us; it should add Life, Vigour, and Strength to her Majesty, and consequently Victory over their most invincible Enemies; and this the more probable, in regard that Mars at the same time is in that Royal Sign Sagittary Great and the Councils and Consultations of our Superiours this Quarter, shall about European Affairs, shall be managed: the ensuing Spring and Summer amongst the rest, have great Resolution, and stoutness, having so good and potent an Enemy to deal with, and the less spirit in the Enemy, than neglecting his Affairs, for which he will be able to accomplish his Designs. The late Conjunction of Saturn and Mars in November last, is above 22 degrees of Capricorn, and the Sign Scorpio, preceding this Ingress, may doubtless hereby be manifestly signified in the Persons of some Great men, which in a short time will be manifest to the whole World: for such a remarkable Conjunction affords plentiful matter for to remark upon. Many will very considerably attend Consultations and Actions, in the Kingdoms of France, the Netherlands, and the

Actions

Actions under strict Examinations, and the Persons concerned of no mean or ordinary Quality, nor their Crimes slight and inconsiderable. But in the end, one Impaches or Accuses another, and so abundance of Treachery may this Quarter be discovered, and at the same time, some malicious ill-spirited Person will be hatching and contriving farther Mischief, which in the Conclusion will fall upon their own Heads. And these Matters may be expected to break out more or less in January and February 1891. And thus I proceed to the consideration,

III. Of the Spring Quarter, which continues while the Sun passes through the Signs Aries, Taurus, Gemini.

THE Spring Quarter commences March the 10th, at 9<sup>h</sup> 21<sup>m</sup> in the Morning, in the Latitude of London, at which moment of Time we Have about 18<sup>d</sup> of Aquarey Culminating, and 22<sup>d</sup> of Gemini Ascending, Asas and Venus near the Midheaven, Jupiter in the North, in exact Sextile to them both, the Saturn in the West, the Moon in Trine to Jupiter, and Sextile of Venus, in the East. So that the Position of Heaven appears very Benevolent, (as those that can set a Figure may easily try). And from this Position I cannot judge otherwise, but that Peace and Tranquillity should be continued amongst us. — Quiescat Pax. Now as to the Knowledge of future Contingencies, I know there are many good People that will not allow or believe it possible to be done by Man; and I must confess that Temporal Providence continually reserves its secrets, yet some things are and may be known by us, or at least modestly hinted at, I shall not therefore point at any particular Person or Nation personally, but observe Præsum's Instructions, Particulari Predicatione, non Numquam Discrepantibus, None but those inspired with Divine Oracle do Prædict particular Persons or Things: Besides, 'tis the Apocalyptic Scope, to treat only of General Accidents, and so I would be understood, and excused, if at any time I should accidentally transgress my Limits. But to the Matter in hand. The Face of Heaven, according to Natural Causes, promises well, and therefore we may hope well, that we shall see better this year (and for the future) than many expected. Jupiter in the East, and Venus in the Middle Signes, &c. Menace I judge not many happy Conclusions; (as well as the contrary) but many Persons, in many Commissions, and in general, in many parts of the Kingdom, in hopes of recovering those Differences remain concerning the Actions appertaining to War, Commerce, Contracts, or other Differences between one Nation, or Province, or Country, and another, that thereby all or most of them might be made happy with the great Blessing of a comfortable Peace, of which, tho' some succeeding Configurations promise very fair Hopes; and Indeavours, yet the Plurality of Aspects and Configurations falling in, one upon another, as the Aspects of Saturn and Mars from fixed Signs at the end of March; the Opposition of Saturn and Mercury the beginning of May; the Opposition of Saturn and Mars in July, and Conjunction of Jupiter and Mars in the same Month, and divers other Notable Aspects of the Planets (as may be seen by the Calendar part) I may put a stop, or unhappily retard a hopeful Conclusion, for no longer time; unless it please God one of his great Mercies to incline some obdurate Persons, who are in this Conjunction of Affairs deeply concern'd, to change their former Resolutions, and so degenerate from their former Judgments and Opinions. But before I conclude my Judgment upon this Point, I cannot omit to consider the fixation of Mars and Jupiter upon the Midheaven; there, in friendly Sextile to the Sun and Jupiter, who are (as I said before) in exact Trine with the Sun at the Sun's Ingress, &c. This naturally points out a virtuous King, who thereby gains the Love of his People; and generally a good understanding between the People in General, and their Superiours all over, or in the most part of England. And further let it be considered, as Jupiter a Beneficent Planet, and in friendly Aspect to Venus the lesser Fortune, also with Mars and the Moon; this, I presume, will be allowed naturally to incline the willing Indeavours of many generous and noble moderate Persons, of no mean Birth, great in Power, Command, or Office; also many Orthodox and Religious Prelates, or Dollars of great Learning and Veneration, many Gentlemen of great Knowledge and Understanding in the Affairs of the World, Persons of deep and sound Judgment in the Laws of Nations, whether met together in a Convention, or distinctly acting; every one in his own Nation; I say, such Persons will be extremely solicitous and endeavour to qualify such Edicts, Constitutions, or Laws, either of Princes or Commonwealths, as have formerly (or at present) offended, or given occasion of Offence. May the high Hand of Providence, which governeth all things, incline the Hearts of all good men men, and not for a great an Undertaking in any part of Europe, to bring to pass so good a Work, to their Honour and personal Reputation, and the shame and confusion of such as will not support any honourable Act themselves, nor value or encourage others that are both able and willing, and such Persons there are too many even in our own Nation or Kingdom of England.

IV. Of the Summer Quarter, which continues till the Sun be past through the Signs Cancer, Leo, and Virgo.

The Summer Quarter takes its beginning this Year Jupiter 11th at 9<sup>h</sup> 48<sup>m</sup> in the Morning, at which Moment we have the latter degrees of Taurus Culminating, and the first Degree of Virgo Ascending in the Latitude of London, the Moon separates from the Body of Mars, and applies to the Sextile of the Sun, and the conjunction of Jupiter and Venus, and thus shows the Position in general. But there are many remarkable Configurations of the Planets this quarter, which I shall consider in the following Judgment. And in the first place, I affirm that there are Customs practis'd by some great Persons in many parts of the World, which cannot, nor ought not to be assimilated, and by the meaner or ordinary sort of People, and therefore what I have written, ought not to be applied to all sorts of People. Few is now in the sign of Island, and may probably influence much more good to that unhappy Nation in general, then Satan in Scots, did them mischief; and this the rather, in regard the Moon leaves Mars, and hastens to the Sextile of the Sun, and Body of Jupiter in Taurus, wherein he has the Dignity, of Exaltation. I wish that unfortunate afflicted Kingdom all happiness, and deliverance, but in some very few years they will be in as much Splendor and Grandeur as ever. Qui facit Deus. At the beginning of this Year, I find a malicious Opposition of Saturn and Venus, which doth not only signify something relating to the aforesaid Kingdom, viz. some treacherous Action, but it menaces the Female sort in general, and some eminent Person in particular of the Sex. Now we may expect to hear of some cross Marriages, or some Ladies or Gentlewomen stealing a Marriage against their Relations consent to their own Ruine; and some young Sparks treated in the same kind expecting Fortunes, but unhappily frustrated of their hopes, to their great vexation, and too late Repentance, and therefore let this be a Caveat to all Persons concerned, if it happens to some in time to their perusal. This is

It is to be feared that too many of the same Sex will be discontented, and unto without Inevitable Consequences, which will be the cause of many private Disputes, and I fear many Separations of Men from their Wives, and this amongst persons of no mean Quality. But that which is the most considerable in this Quarter, is the unlucky Opposition of Saturn and Mars in July, which is seconded with some others of no favourable Signification. Such Aspects may give just Occasion to such People under those Signs Scorpio and Taurus, to fear Treacheries or Differences to arise amongst the higher Fort; at least some Blows, tending to Rancour and Malignity, and unhappy Disputes, which I heartily wish we in England be not too sensible of. In June, we may expect the Actions of this Summer Quarter to be of great concernment both in Martial and Civil Affairs; for Mars is potent in the Sign Aries his own Dignities; and the Moon shew-ing his virtue to Jove, as if Providence had designed some great persons to reconcile those Differences to which I fear by this good people of our Nation, or to reduce them into a hopeful Agreement at least, for there seems a willingness in all Quarters to comply about this time. And thus I proceed to the Configuration of the Stars.

We Of Autumn, which continues during the Transit of the Sun through Libra, Scorpio, Sagittarius, and Capricorn. The Month of August commences Scorpio, which is a most violent and at which time there is a great deal of commotion, and sometimes of the Regal fixed Sign Leo, according to the old Tradition, the Moon at the same time separates from a very malignant the Sun, and applies to the Trine of Mars and Mercury, and the benevolent Trine of both the Fortunes. And thus stands the Position of this Period, from whence I may rationally judge a hopeful Tranquil time according to second Causes, the Position being very favourable and benevolent. England has many Enemies abroad, and I would not have those that are natives the most instrumental to disturb the Peace of their own Native Country, and to produce their own misery. The aforesaid favourable Position gives us great hope that the Clamors and Disputes amongst us are almost at an end, or at leastwise there is a Mitigation thereof, if not a total suppression of such Controversies, whether about matters of Religion, or of State, &c. and if so, most People will very much incline

...especially amongst the better sort, or such as are bound to do. The benevolent Ties of Love and Kindness produce the Body of the State or Kingdom shall flourish, and enjoy quietly. The Condition of the common People seems good, and much content and satisfaction they will receive from their and Governors, and consequently deport themselves very civil under them; and if this be, there is no fear of their Repining, Plotting, or Mischief against the Government at least during Quartermen, as many ill-spirited Agents have of late years been much guilty of; and then we may expect to hear of much fire and Division also amongst the Grandees of Europe, and particularly in the Courts of Princes, or amongst those of Crown Heads, &c. Upon the same consideration we need not doubt Justice will be equally distributed to the Subjects, and it promote Honor and Advancement to all deserving Persons, and consequently both Rulers and People should Thrive, and grow and Rise; and this will be the happy effect of Peace and unity, which I pray God grant, and continue happily amongst this Quarter and even

Sed absque Deo nihil possumus. And thus I shall conclude Judgment upon the four Quarters of the Year in the words of ingenious Modest Author: That Human Eye cannot see their Horizon, in the discerning Future Contingences, and in conduct of Human Affairs, for what we desire, or dread, shall possibly fall, and what we think necessary, and concludes which least thought of, or what we expect do happen, they that man himself, their children, which sheweth that there is Supernatural in the disposing power above, and therefore 'tis not for our mind (that is, our) to depend or stay at second Causes, but induces a forgetfulness of the first; but we must pass higher, and in speculative Act of the Understanding observe the disposition, dependency, and subordination of Causes to the high Will of Providence, and then we must converse with the Poet, that the chief Link of Causa Chain is tied to the Foot of Jupiters Chair.

VI. Of the Eclipses of this present Year 1691.

There will be two Eclipses of the Sun this Year, but none of the Moon.
The first will happen February 18. about 5 in the morning, it falls in

The Conclusion of Epilogus.

Forget my little Book, go take thy Eggs!
And please thy Friends, tell them what's of Date;

And all such puns, that slight things were;
Then in my next I'll happy Talents tell;
Mean time, God save us all! Adieu, adieu!
